COME IN BEAUTIFUL DREAMS.

BY GEORGE D. PRENTICE.

Come in beautiful dreams, love,
Oh! come to me oft,
When the white wings of sleep
On my bosom lies soft;
Oh! come when the sea
In the moon's gentle light,
Beats soft on the air,
Like the pulse of the night—
When the sky and the wave
Wear their loftiest blue,
When the dew is on the flower
And the stars on the dew.

Come in beautiful dreams, love,
Oh, come, and we'll stray
Where the whole year is crowned
With the blossoms of May—
Where each sound is as sweet
As the echo of a dove,
And the gales are as soft
As the breathing of love;
Where the beams kiss the waves
And the waves kiss the beach,
And our warm lips may catch
The sweet lessons they may teach.

Come, in beautiful dreams, love,
Oh! come and we'll fly
Like two winged spirits
Of love through the sky;
With hand clasped in hand,
On our dream-wings we'll go
Where the starlight and moonlight
Are blending their glow;
And on the bright clouds we'll linger,
Of purple and gold,
Till the angels shall envy
The bliss they behold.

Kishacoquillas Seminary

The friends of Kishacoquillas Seminary will be gratified to know that this Institution is about to emerge from its former obscurity, and take its rank among the first schools of its class.

For a number of years this Institution was content with doing a good work in the way of training teachers for their important duties; but since State Normal Schools have been greatly multiplied, there no longer exists any necessity for giving so much prominence to this department, and, in consequence, the scope and general character of the school has been changed so as to accommodate, first of all, that class of students who have a thorough course in view, either to the practical business of life, to some class in college, or to the honors of a diploma of the Institution. The scholastic year, which before was divided into two sessions, Summer and Winter, now is divided into three, and commences the last Wednesday of August, throwing the long vacation in July and August.

Since this change, which was effected a year ago, the Institution has been steadily growing in numbers, in interest and in popular favor, the closing session being the most successful, and, in every way, the most satisfactory, it is believed, the Institution has ever seen. Encouraged by its promising future, as well as by the Providential removal of obstructions which hitherto had been in the way, the Principal has concluded to erect another building of such dimensions as to give to the school all the advantages of a first-class Seminary. This building, 48 by 75 feet, which is already commenced, will be built of brick, three stories above the basement. It will contain a Lecture Hall, 36 by 60 feet, several recitation rooms, an art room, a library room and accommodations for forty students, besides rooms for several teachers, and the Principal and his family. The building is intended for the use of ladies exclusively. In front it will be connected with the present building, but the parts occupied by the ladies will be wholly separate.

Over two acres of land belongs to the Seminary lot, all of which will be planted in ornamental shade trees. Portions will be provided with attractive means of exercise—the ladies' with several croquet grounds—the gentlemen's with ball alleys, &c. Besides this, over four acres of land, in the vicinity of the school, will be divided into building lots, and, at the proper time, offered for sale. These lots are intended especially for men who desire to move into the vicinity of a good school for the education of their families.

Among the advantages claimed by this school, are these:

1st. A good corps of teachers.

2nd. A good location.

The Principal, on whom the success of this enterprise largely depends, is peculiarly fitted for the work by his large and successful experience in teaching, running through all the different grades of public schools, through five years as County Superintendent of schools, and finally through three years as Principal of Kishacoquillas Seminary. An experience so large and varied, extending through a period of over twenty years, added to natural adaptation, and the advantages afforded by a thorugh collegiate training, ought, under ordinary circumstances, to be sufficient guarantee of success.

Rev. S. H. McDonald, who teaches Ancient Languages and Higher Mathematics, is a graduate of Princeton College and Princeton Theological Seminary, and for a while was tutor in the College. He has had many years' experience in teaching, and is widely known as a man of ripe scholarship, and of eminent success as a teacher. As students advance in the languages, and the higher branches of mathematics, they only become capable of appreciating fully the value of his instruction, while, at the same time, the youngest and weakest members in his classes find that he has the faculty of adapting himself even to their wants. Students are in the school now who are preparing for Junior Class in College under him.

Miss. Mary C. Judson, who teaches Painting, Drawing, French and Higher English, is a native of Connecticut, was educated in New Haven and New York. As an Artist, she has had the advantages of some of the best teachers in America, as well as of Europe. She speaks the French language fluently, and, as an Elocutionist, and teacher of the Higher English Branches, she succeeds admirably. She has had an experience in teaching of over fourteen years, chiefly in connection with Seminaries in South Carolina.

Miss Emma R. Bigham, who teaches Instrumental Music, studied music with the express object of teaching it, and, unlike many others, she refused to commence teaching before she had thoroughly prepared herself for the work by a rigid and extensive course of training under the hands of a skillful musician. She has been connected with Kishacoquillas Seminary over a year, and has given ample evidence that the recommendations which secured for her the situation were altogether warranted.

S. W. Pollock, by his eminent success as teacher in the Public Schools, has secured for himself the position of teacher of the English branches.

As it becomes necessary to make additions to the Faculty, only first-class teachers will be employed, whatever may be their cost.

2nd. The location is a good one.

Kishacoquillas valley has health in its atmosphere, beauty in its mountains, and finely cultivated fields, industry, sobriety and intelligence of its inhabitants, all of which are silent, though efficient educators. Scarcely can there be found a place more favorable for the culture of a human soul for its development and growth into a beautiful life. The labors of many good and faithful teachers in building up characters are wholly nautralized by pernicious influences ou'side the schoolroom.

Besides, young men and ladies, who attend school to learn, generally prefer a place of quiet, where they will be least interrupted by outside excitements, such as frequently occur in towns and cities. Any other class of students are no important advantage to any institution.

The distance of the Seminary from the railroad—four miles—amounts, practically, to very little. A ride in the stage of from 20 to 40 minutes, over an excellent pike, through a beautiful valley, puts one in connection with the train every morning, and returns one in the same way every evening.

There are two mails every day; one from the west in the morning, the other from the east in the evening.

With such a Faculty as above described, and such advantages, with others which might be enumerated, Kishacoquillas Seminary flings its card to the world.

Napoleon's Estimate of Jesus Christ.

Napoleon, when at St. Helena, asked Coun, Montholon, "Can you tell me who Jesus Christ was?" The question was declined, and Napoleon proceeded.—"Well, then, I will tell you. Alexander, Cæsar, Charlemagne and myself, have founded great empires; but upon what did these creations of our genius depend? Upon force. Jesus, alone, founded his empire on love, and to this very day millions would die for him. * * * * I think I understand something of human nature; and I tell you all these were men; and I am a man; none else is like Him; Jesus Christ was more than man; I have inspired multitudes with such an enthusiastic devotion that they would have died for me; but, to do this, it was necessary that I should be visibly present, with the electric influence of my looks—of my words—of my voice. When I saw men, and spoke to them, I lighted up the flame of self-devotion in their hearts: Christ, alone, has succeeded in so raising the mind of man towards the Unseen, that it becomes insensible to the barriers of time and space. Across a chasm of eighteen hundred years, Jesus Christ makes a demand which is, beyond all others, difficult to satisfy; He asks for that which a philosopher may seek in vain at the hands of his friends, or a father of his children, or a bride of her spouse, or a man of his brother. He asks for the human heart. He will have it entirely so Himself. He demands it unconditionally; and forthwith His demand is granted. Wonderful! In defiance of time and space, the soul of man, with all its powers and faculties, becomes an annexation to the Empire of Christ. All who sincere ly believe in Him, experience that remarkable, supernatural love toward Him. This phenomenon—it is altogether beyond the scope of man's creative powers. Time, the great destroyer, is powerless to extinguish this sacred flame; time can neither exhaust its strength, nor put a limit to its range. This is it which strikes me most: I have often thought of it. This is it which proves to me quite convincingly the Divinity of Jesus Christ."

Cheap Pleasures.

Did you ever study the cheapness of some pleasures? Do you know how little it takes to make a multitude happy? Such trifles as a penny, word, or a smile do the work. There are two or three boys passing along, give them each a chestnut and how smiling they look! They will not be cross for some time.—A poor widow who lives in the neighborhood, who is

R. B. BARGER & CO.

ALWAYS IN THE ADVANCE.

Two weeks ago we published the proceedings of a meeting held in Unionville on the 16th ult., at which time and place a Union Republican Club was organized, and resolutions adopted recommending the organization of similar clubs in every election district in the county.

This is right, and shows the true spirit. Indeed, our Unionville friends are always in the advance. They are always first in every good word and work. Our friends A. N. Russell, Geo. Alexander, Jno. Alexander, Dr. J. M. Blair, Benj. Rich, Wm. H. Smith, David Campbell, and a host of others we might name as honest, earnest, intelligent men, are always in the van-guard of freedom and right—are always alive to the best interests of the great Republican party.

We earnestly call upon the Republicans of Centre county everywhere, in every township and borough, to arouse to action, and imitate the example of our wide-awake friends of Unionville and Union township. Organize; organize in every district, and prepare for the coming contest. The old spirit of the rebellion is still at work. The traitor Meek and his disloyal anti-war cohorts are as busy as bees, and their sympathies are still with the ex-rebels—the men who attempted to destroy the Union—the Government—and to bring disgrace upon our "dear old flag." These men call themselves Democrats, but it is a slander—a reproach upon the principles of Jefferson, and the leaders themselves a cheat and a libel upon that once respected, but now dishonored name.

The Potter county Journal, speaking on this subject, says: The Democracy are organizing in every Congressional district preparatory to a most earnest contest for the mastery in the next Congress. They base their hopes upon divisions and bickering in the Republican party. In this, we trust, they will find themselves greatly mistaken. Nothing but apathy and neglect, on the part of Republicans, can secure to the Democrats any more strength in the next Congress than they now have. We believe that it would be a national calamity, at this time, to give them power to cripple the efforts of the administration in its noble efforts to prosper the country in all her essential interests. Thus far the administration of President Grant has fully met the expectations of his most sanguine political friends. On the heels of his election a most important work was to be performed in the reconstruction of the rebel states on a just and firm basis, and the adjustment of the financial system in such a manner that the great business interests of the country should not materially suffer. How well he has accomplished this great work, with the co-operation of a Republican Congress, the present peace and universal prosperity of the country fully attest. Retrenchment and reform, in all departments, have been successfully accomplished. For nobler or grander advancements in the way of justice, liberty and the full development of Republican institutions, in so short a time, there is no parallel in the history of Governments.

In the adoption of all these great peace and financial measures, the administration of President Grant has, at every point, met the bitter opposition of the Democracy, both in and out of Congress. Their one principle was to oppose every measure of the Administration and a Republican Congress, right or wrong. But this was not inconsistent with their course throughout the rebellion when they were in full sympathy with the rebels.

Should they, in any manner, succeed in getting control of the next Congress, they would clog and defeat the administration in its further efforts to do good. Let the Republicans in every district organize, harmonize, and work energetically, as will the Democracy, and they will add to, instead of diminish their present power in Congress. Give President Grant the power to complete the great work he has commenced.

To our Republican friends throughout the Congressional and Senatorial districts we send greeting, and assure them that there is no dissatisfaction in our ranks in centre county. We are a unit in the great work, co-workers for the triumphant success of the liberty-loving principles of the great Republican party. We are organizing for the contest, and rest assured you will hear a good report from "Old Centre" on the second Tuesday of October.

A Berlin correspondent says that "if you were to hear the Prussians talk you would think them all Americans in their progressions and valor, and like our own countrymen they believe themselves invincible.

Much valuable reading matter unavoidably stands over till next week.

S. T. SHUGERT—WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

We find, in the last Watchman, a card from Mr. S. T. Shugert, declining the candidacy of the State Senatorship, in which he gives several reasons for so doing. The second reason is in the following words:

"2nd. I do not care enough either "for the honor or the office, to place "myself in the position of competing "for a nomination which other gentle- "men are so solicitous to obtain, wheth- "er in the interest of the traveling mis- "sionaries who have taken upon them- "selves the duty of 'setting up,' or of "those having peculiar personal inter- "ests to promote."

Has Mr. Shugert dissolved partnership with the selfish and unprincipled Court House Ring, their counsellors and confederates? We hope, for his own political character, that it is so, and done in good faith.

But what does Mr. Shugert mean, and who does he denounce as "traveling mis- "sionaries," who have taken upon them- "selves the duty of 'setting up' with "those having personal interests to pro- "mote?" We stated in the REPUBLICAN, two weeks ago, that Jim Burns, Gen. Potter and Aleck Reed were here to see Meek and Alexander, to aid them to get Jacob G. Moyer out of the way, and to fix upon the candidate for the Senate; also, for the Assembly, and, by this means, and the union of the several wise heads, procure "sharp, en- "ergetic, experienced Legislators," as there was money to be made, and plenty of good pickings to be had next winter at Harrisburg by the lobbyests, who always divide with their friends in the Senate and House.

Meek claimed the prize, and referred to his three-story brick house, with a Hall in it, to prove that he had been "sharp and energetic" while in Harrisburg, besides having been very industrious in pinching money out of several parties for the benefit of said Burns, &c. He then declared that Shugert could not run on account of his connection with the fraudulent-naturalization-coffee-pot transaction of three years ago. In this opinion Burns, and Potter, and Aleck all agreed, and fixed upon Alexander the sly as the man—the very man, and they knew it from past experience.

Are these the missionaries to whom Mr. Shugert refers? If so, he confirms our former statements. Does he also include the two last missionaries to Penns valley—C. T. Alexander and D. G. Bush—the Senatorial competitors? We rather think he does, for he knows the finesse, trickery and intrigues in politics of Cyrus the sly, and, at the same time, has a very correct idea of the flunkyism and bagatelle proclivities of his opponent, D. G. Bush.

We are pleased that Mr. Shugert has at last got a surfeit of his Ring connection, and has "come out from the foul "party." We hope he will honestly work for its complete overthrow. The pleasure of defeating Mr. Shugert this fall will not be ours. He is too sharp to run and be sacrificed a second time; but his idea of Missionaries is a good one.—Now; to our mind, it is clear, if there were no heathen, there wouldbe no missionaries. For the life of us, we cannot think of the one, without recalling the other. Collections are raised in our churches to send missionaries to the heathen—the Chinese, for instance. Does Mr. Shugert wish us to infer from his reference to missionaries that he looks upon the Centre county Democracy as a set of ignorant heathen—Chinese, Coolies, &c.? Or is it his intention to impress upon the minds of his political friends, that Messrs. Burns, Potter, Meek, Alexander & Co., while they play the role of "traveling missionaries" look down upon their deluded followers and fellow Democrats—the rank and file—as poor, deluded Christless heathen? Which horn of the dilemma, Mr. Shugert? In either view, if we understand the rules of logic, we are to look upon the Centre county—especially the Pennsvalley—Democracy as a set of heathen, no better than the Chinese, who do not know their duty, nor how to act, or vote, until enlightened by Burns, Potter, Meek, Alexander & Co. What a slap, this, is at poor "Fred Kurtz's Reporter."

We do not pretend to understand your meaning; but you evidently perceive that it needs explanation. "Travel- "ing Missionaries," heathen, Chinese, Coolies! The idea is a rich one, and shows how bitter our friend Shugert must have been when he wrote that "card," while, at the same time, it shows that James Burns and Gen. Potter etc., know the kind of men they have to deal with, and, like a great many before them, consider it no crime to enlighten the heathen, and then steal their land from them—their nice farms, and big barns. And who so well qualified to aid them in this, as one of their Attorneys, C. T. Alexander? Pennsvalley Democrats, look out for the title to your lands. Legislation is wanted. Venues are to be changed, &c. A word to the wise is sufficient.

THE INDEPENDENT PRESS.

The Press should be independent in the true sense of that word. No paper should be run in the interest of any man, clique, or set of men, but strictly in the interest of the people, the sovereigns of this, the best and freest government under heaven. A paper controlled by a half dozen of men, never did, and never can prosper. An independent paper is a necessity and a blessing in any community; and as such, it should be well supported. Upon such a paper no one man should have greater claims than another, and each and every one wishing the use of its broad columns in his own personal behalf, political or otherwise, should be willing to pay for it, and that right liberally.

The Philadelphia Sunday Mercury, speaking on this subject, grows indignant at the fact that "newspapers should, as Col. Forney says, continually make small men great, without obtaining either gratitude or reward." It says that "publishers, especially of political papers should consider the welfare of themselves and families, before interesting themselves and devoting their time and talents to the elevation of office-seekers. If the latter want fame, make them pay for it. Politics is their business, and they should pay for advertising, the same as a quack medicine vendor, or a tradesman of any other sort. If political party managers, or individual politicians believe that printers' ink will advance their personal and party interests, they should be required to pay what the article is really worth to them. The printer has to pay for his work, his paper, and to pay his hands, and rent, fuel and gas bills, and has to provide for himself and family, and he ought to be paid for everything he does for the benefit of others. Let the politicians remember these 'self-evident truths.' For our part, we do not intend to forget them."

THE NEW ILLINOIS CONSTITUTION.

The people of Illinois have risen superior to party, and claptrap political demagogues, and, by a large majority, have adopted a new constitution which is superior to any State constitution in this Republic, and is deserving more attention than the limits of our paper will permit us to give. Many of its features are new and distinctive, embracing the best ideas of the period upon State government.

One of the articles of the new constitution which will prove to be the most popular, is the one which gives the minority representation. This article fixes the number of Assemblymen at three times that of the Senate, and the terms of office two years, and provides that each voter may cast as many votes for one candidate as there are Representatives to be elected, or may distribute them among the candidates at his option, and the candidate securing the highest number of votes shall be declared elected. By this article the minority secures at least one of the three Representatives.

Another article relating to railroad corporations prevents companies owning parallel lines from consolidating, and declares all roads to be public highways, and empowers the Legislature to fix the rates for passengers and freights on all roads in the State. Railroad property is subject to seizure by the General Assembly in case of public necessity. It prevents railroad companies from increasing their stock without giving public notice 60 days beforehand.

Another article in the new constitution abolishes all laws granting privileges to individuals or corporations, public or private. The Legislature is prohibited from releasing any liability to the State, and its members' salaries are regulated, and they are prevented from receiving any perquisites.

Persons who have been convicted of bribery, perjury, or any person who is a defaulter of any public money entrusted to his care, are prohibited from holding any office of trust or profit in the State.

State officers' salaries cannot be increased or diminished during the term, and the salaries of county officers are regulated according to the population of the county, and the amount of labor and responsibility required in the office.

A section of Article 8 prevents the General Assembly, or any county, city, town, township, school district, or other public corporation from making any appropriation from the public fund to aid any schools, seminaries, academies, colleges, universities, or any other institution of learning controlled by any church or sectarian denomination whatever.

The State is prevented from becoming interested in any banking corporation, and no suspension of specia payment is legalized. The Legislature is not permitted to contract debts beyond $250,000 without first obtaining the consent of the people, and no funds can be taken from the treasury for internal improvements, or for paying the liabilities of associations or individuals.

The adoption of this constitution by the people of Illinois is the most important legislation which has taken place in this country for years 'and we predict that the principle upon which it was framed —that is, the ideas—will eventually be incorporated in the constitution of all the States.

COL. TATE'S NEW PAPER.

We are pleased to see that Col. Tate, the indomitable Col. has started a new paper in Williamsport. That is to say, if there must be a Democratic paper in Williamsport we would rather see it under the control of Col. Tate, than that of almost any other man. The Col. is an able and spirited writer, and, unlike the little rebel Meek, a tolerably fair opponent. He possesses as a partisan some honor and honesty, which as a general thing is hard to find in Democratic editors. The Col. prints a good paper and has the manliness to tell the truth, occasionally at least, in regard to Republican men and measures. In speaking of Hon. Wm. H. Armstrong, and of Mr. Hill, the candidate for Assembly in Lycoming county, Col. Tate, says:

"Now, we admit that we have no especial concern for, or business with the modus operandi by which our Republican friends manage their domestic menagerie, and shall not presume to offer them any advice in advance on the subject. It is not our 'political funeral,' yet we confess we are at a loss to know upon what parity of reasoning or principles of justice our neighbors of the Gazette and Bulletin arrive at the sage conclusion enunciated above, that the 'usage of the party' should be respected in the case of Mr. Hill and ignored in relation to Mr. Armstrong. Or in other words, why should the 'usage of the party' ensure the salvation of the former and the destruction of the latter. These are points of great importance to the public, and we think our Radical friends should not use the iron bedstead with such severity without first giving a more satisfactory explanation.

"We are, as out-siders, in favor of the renomination of both Messrs. Hill and Armstrong. They are both estimable gentlemen; they are both members of the Republican party, and in full communion in the Radical church. * * * * *

"Finally, we incline to the opinion that Messrs. H. and A. should both be honored with a renomination."

Here is a Democratic endorsement of Wm. H. Armstrong, from one of the oldest Democratic editors in the State. Living in the same town for years with Mr. Armstrong, Col. Tate is prepared to say that Mr. Armstrong is "an estimable gentleman." Poor Meek, he is proved a contemptible slanderer and libeler by members and papers of his own party almost every day. He should hide his face for very shame.

WILL THE WAR EFFECT THE PRICE OF WHEAT &c.

The other day we overheard a farmer rejoicing at the present prospect of a general European war, as he considered it would have the effect of raising the price of wheat in America to three dollars per bushel. The war has already raised the price of breadstuffs in this country, although no orders have as yet been received from Europe to buy, consequently the rise is only speculative.—From the very necessity of the case, all European wars, of late years, have been and all future European wars must be sharp and brief, and it is exceedingly doubtful if wheat will nett more than one dollar and fifty cents per bushel to the farmer, if it does that much. All the evidences now discernable look toward a short, sharp and decisive war between the now belligerent nations of Europe, and our advice to the farmer would be to realize from his grain as soon as possible, for, at the end of the war, prices will fall much lower than they have been at any time for the last ten years. Gentlemen, this is our advice; you can act as you please; but if you should conclude to hold your grain for higher prices, and eventually be compelled to take less than you can get now, it will be your own fault.

There are many hair preparations in the market, but none have so desirable effect upon the hair and scalp, as Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer.

CENTRE HALL REPORTER.

The Editor of the Reporter, in his last issue, talks right "out in meetin'," and cautions his Democratic friends against the chicanery and tricks of the Court House Ring, and professional office-seeking Democrats. Hear him:

"Democrats of Centre, do not forget the delegate elections on the 6th of August. Send good and firm men to the county convention; such as have the good of the party at heart, and who cannot be pulled and wheedled by some selfish men at Bellefonte, who work only for their own interests, and care nothing for the country Democrats beyond their votes. Keep shy of professional office-seekers, and be deaf to their smooth tongues, and let the nomination of good and true men and the success of the party be the aim.

Fred has metal in him, it appears, and gives the "professional office-seeker" a touch of "sour grapes." While he, by his outspoken manliness in giving utterance to the above, endorses the truth of what we have written against the Ring, and the Bellefonte Democrats, we can not refrain from asking him the question, are you not too late in your warnings? Do you not know, Fred, that the Ring has every thing cut and dry, and have secured a majority of the delegates who will meet in their nominating convention, on the 9th inst., only to confirm the nomination of the Ring's select candidates for the important offices? Pennsvalley is nowhere in a close contest, or convention, for the Ring, in the last apportionment of delegates, took good care to have a majority of said delegates on this side the mountain. In doing this, notwithstanding their majorities, and the heavy Democratic vote must come from the German townships, they prove what we have always said, and what our friend Kurtz now reiterates, that the "selfish men at Bellefonte" are determined to have all the fat offices, and "care nothing for the country Democrats beyond their votes."

We are glad that Fred has thus endorsed the facts as published by us against the Ring. We hope it will have the desired effect, and convince the honest workingmen and farmers of Centre county that their true place is in the ranks of the Republican party. In the mean time, we congratulate Fred on this independent stroke. Will he follow it up? We will see who will cave: Fred and his Pennsvalley Democracy, or the Ring.

HON. WM. H. ARMSTRONG.

At the request of many of the friends of Hon. Wm. H. Armstrong, we copy from our issue of May 11th, the article we then published, explanatory of his absence when the vote on pig iron was taken. What reasonable man will find fault with our member for being absent, when it is so clear that his absence was caused by storm and flood—the act of Providence, as the lawyers would say.

AN EXPLANATION.

We notice that many of our exchanges are condemning, without mercy, the members of Congress who were absent when the vote on pig iron was taken.—Among those mentioned as absent, we find the name of our own member, Hon. Wm H. Armstrong. We confess that it annoyed us somewhat, but it never shook our faith a particle in our able and efficient Member, for the reason that we knew him personally to be sound to the core on the tariff question, and we knew that for the last fifteen or twenty years he had ranked as one of its boldest and ablest advocates in Central Pennsylvania. From these facts, and for these reasons, we were fully satisfied that if he were absent at the time that the vote was taken, the fault was not his—that he would be able to give a strong and well grounded reason for his absence.—Indeed, we remarked to some of our particular friends that, if Mr. Armstrong was absent when that vote was taken, sickness, or some other Providential interference must have kept him away.

Now we are happy to learn that we had not over estimated our man; but that our surmises, or, rather, predictions were true. The facts appeared in the Congressional Globe the next day, but we confess we never saw them until last week. We give the explanation for the benefit of our readers, and the numerous warm and ardent supporters of Mr. Armstrong in this county.

As to the absence of Mr. Armstrong when the vote on pig iron was taken, it occurred thus; and if the Globe was more generally circulated, there would have been no explanation needed: The House adjourned on Saturday to meet on Monday. Friday night Mr. Armstrong went home, intending to return on Monday, or Sunday night, if possible; but to guard against possible detention, he paired with Mr. Archer, of Maryland, who was a decided and bitter opponent of the bill. The very fact of his taking the precaution to pair with Mr. Archer, shows how vigilant, and how faithful a public servant he is, and how much he has at heart the welfare of his constituents—the brawny men of the mountains—the iron-nerved tariff men of the Eighteenth district—the men who aided to conquer the slave-holder's rebellion, and who are now ready to crush the English monster—Free Trade—and its minions, the leaders of the Democratic party. Mr. Armstrong arrived at home on Saturday morning. On that day it commenced to rain. It rained all day, and continued, not only to rain, but to pour all day Sunday. Monday morning Lycoming creek was so high that the bridges and railroad, in many places, were torn up, and the North Central train (Baltimore train) could not get in.

The water at Williamsport was up 17 feet, and rapidly rising, and there were reports that the trains could not get through. Mr. Armstrong was at this juncture strongly advised not to attempt the journey in this uncertainty, and the more particularly as he had taken the precaution to pair on the tariff. When we take into consideration these facts, will any sane or reasonable man condemn him for not leaving his family, and his large interests on the river, especially when a general inundation was threatened, and no possibility of his reaching Washington in consequence of the bridges having been swept away?

During his absence from Washington, Mr. Armstrong's friends paired him with Mr. Haldeman, not remembering that he had himself paired off with Mr. Archer, and thus it happened that his absence was in fact a gain of one vote for the bill.

We have written more than we intended, and more, perhaps, than was necessary; but we felt it our duty to vindicate our member from the aspersions of those who seek to injure his fair fame, and, through him, strike at the great Republican party. We are proud to chronicle the fact that Mr. Armstrong has not missed a single vote but the one in question, and that he has proved himself one of the ablest and most discreet advocates of the tariff in the present Congress.

DELEGATE ELECTION.

Republicans, working-men of Centre Co., remember that the delegate elections will be held on next Saturday afternoon the 6th of August. In this election you should all act your part. You should all manifest a deeper interest. Each and every one of you should attend and aid in selecting good and true men as delegates to represent you in the County Convention, which meets on Wednesday the 10th inst. These delegates will nominate the candidates, for whom you will be called upon to deposit your vote on the second Tuesday of October next. Turn out, then to the delegate elections and thus make your influence felt, insure harmony in our ranks, and the enthusiastic support of our ticket when made. Do this. Act well your part, and we will guarantee the success of the ticket in this county. We can carry the County this fall, if you only think so and work as earnest patriotic men struggling for a great principle should work. The Delegate elections is the proper place to commence). Will you attend?

LYCOMING COUNTY.

The Republican County Convention of Lycoming county met in Williamsport, on Wednesday, the 27th ult. Hon. Wm. H. Armstrong was declared the choice of the convention as its candidate for Congress by acclamation. An excellent county ticket was placed in nomination, when Dr. W. C. Doane presented the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention cordially approve the administration of both the National and State Governments, as eminently wise and patriotic, and deserving the fullest confidence and support of the people.

Resolved, That in the large reduction of the expenditures of the National Government; the more efficient collections of taxes; the strict and just economy which has marked its administration, the reduction of the public debt by more than one hundred and twenty-millions of dollars; and the reduction of taxation to the amount of ninety millions of dollars per annum, and the repeal of taxes upon farm produce, and other onerous and oppressive war taxes, the Government has had wise regard to the best interests of the country at large, and has merited its confidence and support.

Resolved, That the protection of American labor against the pauper labor of Europe and China is a wise policy, confirmed by experience, and essential to the developement and maintenance of home industries, and that the Republican party pledges itself to its continued support, and faithful adherence to the best interests of the workingmen of America.

Resolved, That it is the duty of the General Government to promote, by wise and just laws, the immigration of industrious and intelligent foreigners, excluding only paupers and criminals, as one of the essential elements of national prosperity, and that we give welcome to the citizens of all nations to participate in the advantages of our institutions, our industries, and our national territory.

Resolved, That we deprecate the system by which Chinese laborers are indiscriminately imported under contracts made abroad for services to be performed in the United States, as unjust to home labor, demoralizing to industry, and so liable to fraudulent abuse as practically to restore a system of involuntary servitude, nearly allied to slavery, and that it should be prohibited by law.

Resolved, That we remember with gratitude the invaluable service of the soldiers of the war in both the army and navy; that we rejoice with pride in their adherance to the Republican party, and that they are entitled to the highest consideration, and that the wounded and disabled, and the orphans of the war, are the wards of the nation, and should receive such pecuniary assistance from the government, as will evidence the nation's gratitude.

Resolved, That it is alike unjust and unwise to perpetuate a spirit of caste in the midst of a free people; that all men being born "free and equal," are entitled to the just and equal protection of the law, and that we recognize in the amendments to the Constitution of the United States, the outstretched hand of a free and generous people, "doing unto others as they would have others do unto them.

Resolved, That this Convention unreservedly endorse the course of our Representative in Congress, the Hon. Wm. H. Armstrong, and that we recognize him as a candidate deserving the unanimous support of the Republican party of this Congressional District.

Resolved, That in Henry Johnson we present to the people of this Senatorial District an honest man, a sound lawyer, and one who by his strenuous exertions secured an amendment to our constitution which gave to the soldiers in the field the right of suffrage.

Resolved, That the support of the Republican party is due to Theo. Hill, our Repesentative in the Legislature.

Resolved, That fidelity to the principles of the Republican party requires, and we do hereby pledge ourselves to the earnest and faithful support of all the candidates this day nominated.

JULIAN, July 30th, 1870.

COL. W. W. BROWN:—We notice by your paper that the delegate elections take place on Saturday the 6th of Aug. and yet I have never noticed any thing in your paper Editorially I mean, in regard to the election of Senator in this District. Why are you so quiet? Have you no interest in the contest? Here in Huston township many of us have been looking for the announcement of the name of A. R. Barlow, Esq., as a Senatorial candidate, and we cannot understand why it has not before this been placed before the people. He is a good man, a christian man, able and intelligent and would represent the district with honor to himself as well as to his constituents. Centre county never had an abler, or more efficient member in the Legislature than A. R. Barlow. His zealous efforts, and the laws passed through his influence, in behalf of the workingmen while a member of the Legislature will not soon be forgotten by us. With him as our Senatorial champion and standard bearer, I can assure you that every workingman in the Republican party will rally to his support, while hundreds of the intelligent members of the Democratic party will aid to elect him in consequence of his noble record in behalf of labor and of the laboring men of the county and district.

I repeat it, then; if you want victory, sure and certain, to perch upon our banner in October next, give us A. R. Barlow, and you shall have it. We will make the welkin ring with our shouts, and the enemy quail before our paper bullets in the shape of ballots.

Respectfully Yours,
WORKING REPUBLICAN.

WILLIAMSAORT, July 25, '70.

A. N. Russell, Esq., President of the Unionville Republican Club; Dear Sir:—I thank you for your communication just received, enclosing me the resolutions of the Unionville Republican Club. I feel much honored by the cordial approval or my Congressional course so kindly expressed. It is one of my deepest convictions that there can be no real national prosperity not based upon well paid and active industry.

Labor is the wealth of the country, and it should be protected against the destructive competition of the pauper labor of Europe, by such protection to American industries as will enable our manufacturers to meet this competition without oppressing the labor upon which they depend. A protective tariff is a public necessity, and should be insisted on with uncompromising persistency.

Holding these views, should it be the pleasure of the Republicans of this district to return me a second time to Congress, it shall be my earnest effort to promote these principles, and the general welfare of the working men of the country. Very truly yours,

W. H. ARMSTRONG.

AARONSBURG, July 26, 1870.

W. W. BROWN, Esq., Dear Sir:—Having noticed in your paper of last week a communication from Potter township, in which my name is announced as a candidate for the Legislature again this fall, I take the liberty of informing my friends that I am not a candidate for the office named, and respectfully decline the profered honor, with a feeling of sincere thankfulness for the united support of the Republicans, and many Democrats, during the last campaign, and the hope that some one better and competent than myself to advocate and represent the great interests of the people of our county may be placed in nomination by the Republican convention of Centre county soon to assemble. I remain very respectfully yours.

J. P. COBURN.

BOALSBURG, JULY 23d, 1870,

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:—In thinking over the names of candidates to fill our county offices the ensueing year or term, I would offer the name of that sterling Republican Christian Dale Sr., as a suitable person to fill the office of Jury Commissioner, and I do hope as Harris township is not asking for big things the convention will not refuse us the small favor we ask. I know that there is no man in the county better qualified to fill the office than Mr. Dale.

A WORKING FARMER.

MILESBURG, July 30, 1870.

R. B. BARGER & Co., Gentlemen:—I take pleasure in saying that Mr. Brainerd has promptly remitted the amount advanced by me to him for Plain Words. At his request I make this acknowledgment in your paper.

Very truly yours,
CHAS. L. BUFFINGTON.

For the REPUBLICAN.
HAS CENTRE SOLD OUT?

COL. W. W. BROWN, Dear Sir:—You say your paper is run in the interest of the Republican party. I hope, then, you will allow me a little space in your valuable paper.

I have been looking for something in your columns advocating the claims of Centre county to one of the nominees for the State Senate. If any such article has appeared, I have overlooked it. That Mifflin and Centre are clearly entitled to the nominees in this Senatorial district, there can be no doubt; and that they can secure them by pursuing a judicious course, is equally clear. From appearances, and intimations Centre is not to urge her claims in securing one of her own citizens. Can you tell me for what reason? Can she find no suitable man? Is there no man offering, that meets with the views of the Ring?—Pardon the phrase, as we may not have one in our party. I rather think we have not. But there is so little interest manifested, in general, that some of us are at a loss to know what is wrong. Hence, the question has been asked, "has Centre sold out?" If she has, it is but fair that we should all know when the contract was made and concluded; and to whom; and for what? Three years ago it looked a little in that direction. Is it to be so again? The State will be redistricted at the next session of the legislature, and it is important that Centre county have some one to take care of her interests while that is being done.—When that occurred before we were left to take care of ourselves, just as we deserved to be. We had turned a cold shoulder to the counties then composing the senatorial district, after having the lamented Col. Gregg for two terms, and endorsed another gentleman.

Ingratitude is hateful. Centre county ought to agree on a candidate, and use all her energies to secure his nomination and election, and wipe out forever the impression that unless every man can have his favorite, he will rank himself among the donothings, while the enemy are united, and working day and night. I have heard it said, by more than one, the hand writing will appear on the wall without doubt so plain that when some men, and those who are influenced by them, run they may read.

LOOKER ON.

HON. WM. H. ARMSTRONG—VOICE OF THE REPUBLICAN PRESS—EIGHTEENTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

"This gentleman having served his constituents in Congress with unusual ability and industry, and in every respect proved faithful to his party friends, will no doubt be unanimously re-nominated by the Republican Convention of this county, which assembles at Williamsport, on Wednesday, next week. And while we do not profess to know what is going on in the other counties of the district, we suppose that his re-nomination by the district is equally certain.—Certainly no county in the district would presume to attempt to ignore the usages of the party, or his claims to a second term. In this view of the case, then, to say nothing of the high position Mr. Armstrong has attained as an able member of Congress, we think it may be considered settled that he will be renominated, and of course, re-elected to the next Congress."—Muncy Luminary.

"Such is the report we get from all quarters in the district, and we can assure the Luminary that so far as Clinton county is concerned there will be no successful attempt to violate the usage of the party, but that she will accord to Mr. Armstrong an emphatic re-nomination. We see it stated in a neighboring paper that Major Jesse Merrill, of this place, and Gen. Beaver, of Bellefonte, are aspirants for Congressional honors, but we learn that so far as the former is concerned there is no foundation for such a statement.

"We are aware that some designing individuals in this county, whose merits have not been recognized by Mr. Armstrong as sufficient to entitle them to all the offices within his bestowal, have been endeavoring to stir up disaffection among the soldiers, here and elsewhere throughout the district; but we cannot believe that any considerable number of that patriotic element of our party will suffer themselves to be misled into a step which would not only weaken our party in the district, but utterly destroy the confidence and respect now accorded them, by Republicans, as opposition to Mr. Armstrong at this time most assuredly would. Soldiers should remember that whatever consideration is allowed them on account of their meritorious sacrifices in the war of the Union, springs from the Republican party.—But if they should suffer themselves to be made the instruments of a few in individuals of that party—officers and meritorious ones, perhaps, though they may have been—who have not been permitted to absorb all the patronage at the disposal of our Representative, and thereby be drawn into hostility or lukewarmness toward a man whose ability and devotion to the principles we all profess to cherish have never been questioned by any respectable authority, they will practically cancel much of the debt which is now acknowledged as their due, by those of their fellowcitizens who sustained the Government in its measures for their relief and comfort while they were toiling in the trenches, or suffering in the hospitals, or in Southern prison pens.

"We are the friend of the soldiers, as we trust all our actions as well as all our words have sufficiently shown; and we do not feel willing to see them sacrifice their well-earned influence in our public affairs, which we are convinced would be the result of their opposition to the undoubted choice of four-fifths of the Republican party in this Congressional district."—Clinton Republican.

"From the tone of the press throughout this Congressional district, the unanimous nomination of the Hon. Wm. H. Armstrong for re-election to Congress seems to be conceded. By the established usages of the district, he is entitled to two terms, and any effort to depart from this rule we have no doubt would prove disastrous to the success of the Republican party, and secure the election of a Democrat. Few members have secured more influence in Congress in so short a time, than has Mr. Armstrong. On all important measures considered he has an active part in the debates, and shown a familiarity and ability creditable to himself and the people he represents. His ability and pure integrity is conceded on all hands, and just such men are needed at this time in our national councils. His record on all the questions before Congress is in accord with the principles of the Republican party, and in support of the views of the national administration. Why should he not receive the earnest and cordial support of every Republican in the district for re-election? So far as Potter county is concerned we feel assured that Mr. Armstrong is the first and only choice of the Republican party." Potter Journal.

"It seems to be generally conceded that Hon. Wm. H. Armstrong will be re-nominated for Congress. There are substantial reasons why he should be.—He is a very able representative—one, indeed, of whom the Republican party of the district has reason to be proud.—Not only is he a man of ability and high culture, but he is a man of high moral and social character and respectability. He is honest, earnest, temperate, courteous and respectful to his constituents, and, indeed, in all things well fitted and qualified to represent our people in Congress.

"It is customary to send members at least two terms; it should be, to keep them in Congress as long as they serve the people faithfully and well. Mr. Armstrong does this. He has acquired a far higher standing than most men who go to Congress do the first term.—To come in competition with such men as take the lead of the House, and to maintain a respectable standing among them, is no easy matter. We know from observation that the great majority of men who go to Congress are never heard from till experience gives them weight as workers. Mere speech-making is of little consequence; yet, when there is anything affecting our interests to be said, it is important that we have a Representative there who can command the attention of the House. Mr. Armstrong never speaks without doing this. He has made very able speeches the past session upon the tariff and currency questions—speeches which gave him character at once, among the best men of Congress. He has influence there which we should lose by sending any other man in his place. Indeed, we know of no man in the district who would fill this place better than the present incumbent.

"The policy of frequently changing Representatives is a suicidal policy. It was this which always gave the South the preponderance over the North in the old time. They kept their workers in Congress till their very names became a power; we changed more often then than we now do. By one or two terms a man is only able to educate himself to usefulness.

"We hear of no opposition to the return of Mr. Armstrong in this county; it is taken as a matter of course; and we believe he is by far more popular to-day than he was when first elected.—Tioga Agitator.

WE are requested to announce that H. K. Hoy, a student from the Pennsylvania State Normal School at Millersville, will lecture before the Centre County Normal School, at Rebersburg, on Friday evening, August 5th.

RE-OPENED.—The Evangelical church at Woodward, which has been closed for some time back for repairs, will be reopened on Sunday the 7th inst. Rev. A. L. Reeser will preach both in English and German on the occasion.

THE ILLUSTRATED HUMORIST.—We have received the July number of the above. With this number commences its regular publication, and no charge will be made to subscribers for the May number, or specimen copy. Published at Fayetteville, N. Y., by F. A. Darling, at 50 cents a year.

A YOUNG lad named Miles playing at the breast of the Milesburg dam, in crossing a log, his feet slipped, and he was thrown into the water just at the wicket gate. Fortunately, in coming to the top of the water, he succeeded in catching hold of the gate and hanging there until rescued by some of the citizens who heard him cry.

ARRESTED.—Mr. Morgan, known by many of the people of this county, as a horse drover, was arrested in Lock Haven recently on suspicion of being connected in some way with counterfeiting. He promptly entered bail for his appearance at the next session of the U. S. Court, to be held at Williamsport. We presume he will be able to clear up all suspicions at that time and place.

THE charcoal tin Fruit Cans manufactured and sold by Wetsler & Twitmire, of Milesburg, for 85 cents per dozen, are the best and cheapest in the market. Every can warranted. n29-2t

FISHING.—The amateur fishermen residing near the "Loop," one day last week, had fine sport in attempting to catch the finny inhabitants of the pond attached to the "Red Mills," which by the drawing off the water left the finny tribe high and muddy on the land. The fishermen went into the fun with stiff legs and brave hearts, but came out of the contest with sore shins and mud-bespattered and dilapidated wearing apparel.

LARGE POTATOES.—Mr. William H. Humes, of this place planted some Early Rose potatoes on the 12th of last April, which he dug on the 28th of July, which on an average excell in size anything in the potatoe line that we have seen or heard of this year. A sample potatoe of the lot measured fifteen inches in length and eleven and one half inches inches in circumference—sound to the core. If any other Agriculturist can beat Mr. Humes in the potatoe line we would like to hear from him.

Go to Wetsler & Twitmire and purchase charcoal tin Fruit Cans for 85 cts. per dozen. The very best in market. 2t

SAD ACCIDENT.—Mr. James Shannon was killed by a stroke of lightning at Bald Eagle Furnace, Blair county, on Tuesday afternoon, the 26th inst. He was sitting in his house at the time, leaning against the chimney, with a dog lying under his chair, which was also killed. His wife and two children were in the same room at the time. She was stunned and considerably injured by the shock, and possibly may not recover from its effects. The children escaped without injury. The house was set on fire, and burned to the ground—the citizens saving, however, most of the property in the lower part of the house.—Mr. Shannon was in the 70th year of his age when he met with this sad, untimely fate. The circumstances of this distressing calamity would seem to confirm the popular notion that it is not safe to have dogs in the house during a thunder storm,

AN ABSCONDING SCOUNDREL.—We are informed that Peter McFarland, late proprietor of the City Hotel, has absconded from this city, leaving a vast number of deluded creditors to mourn his absence. It is supposed that McFarland has borrowed, from various persons, money to the amount of over $3,000, and among the rest, Mr. Michael Grimes, his father-in-law, is a sufferer to the amount of nearly $1,000. He was married to the only daughter of Mr. Grimes about the middle of last year, and the latter furnished the house for him, and gave him a good start in business. It is now said that he has a wife and child living in East New Jersey.—McFarland is about 30 years of age, with red, curly hair and moustache, five feet eleven inches high, and very robust. He is a man of fine address, and will work his way into the confidence of any community.—Altoona Daily Sun.

SCHOOLS.—The Moshannon school opened under favorable auspices. The people were very fortunate in securing the services of Miss Sadie Adams, who is a skillful teacher.

—In Burnside township two public schools are now in session. The "Union School" opened in a new school house and under the direction of W. C. Heinly, is in a flourishing condition. The school room is well arranged in every respect which reflects credit on the people of that district. The Pine Glenn school is in successful operation and is taught by N. N. Frank and promises to be a great success under his charge.

—Miss Mattie Taylor's school at Gregg's school house, was closed on Saturday last.

—The County Normal School opened its session at Rebersburg the 27th ult., under favorable circumstances. A course of Lectures by able educators will be delivered during the session, the first one Aug. 11th, by A. B. Hutchison, Esq., others have been invited to deliver lectures among whom are Profs. Truxall, D. M. Wolf and Leisher; D. F. Fortney, Esq.; Revs. Hackinberg and Walker. The session, we are informed, will prove a success.

THE GREAT REAPER AND MOWER TRIAL held at the Agricultural College, July 27th and 28th, 1870, was largely attended and very interesting. Thirteen machines were entered for competition. All seem to concede that the Hubbard Combined Self Raking Reaper and Mower, built at Rochester N. Y., established its claim for superiority in perfection of Reaping and Mowing, and it is highly commended for its great Strength, Light Draft and simplicity of construction. In the absence of the committees report we can only express the sentiment of the great crowd of practical farmers that were present at the trial.

LOST.—An ominous search is being made to find the Boro ordinance regarding the unprotected hogs. The dogs are let lose and the Constable is tied. Poor hoggy is turning every leaf (of grass) to find the long lost, and goes about the streets at every hour draped in thickest morning to the very latter end. The council has also joined in rooting. Great fears are manifested that our romantic hills will be made level and the hollows filled up even, though the hills be made level and hollows filled up, yet the Millenneum of adjusted Boro debt be never realized and the final trump be indefinately deferred.

COPPERHEADS.—These snakes are said to be quite venemous this time of year. There is one that can be frequently seen in the shade along Spring Creek who snaps and bites at everyone who passes. We can assure our friends that his bite is not dangerous as we extracted his poisonous fangs some time ago. He is harmless, and is only permitted to remain there for the amusement of the public. Those fond of viewing the freaks of nature as represented by his snakeship can do so almost any day by passing the Watchman office.

YOUNG MEN.—Bellefonte contains many young men, almost ready to enter for themselves the path of life. To them we say as we would to all other young men everywhere, industry, honesty and perseverance will surely make you respected, wealthy and great. Idleness is the mother of vice. Determine, then, to make the most of your opportunities; and henceforth act on the principle that moments are grains of gold, by the careful gathering of which you are to become rich in knowledge, in experience, in honor, and in happiness.

TUSCARORA ACADEMY, ACADEMIA, PA.—More than three thousand young men have gone forth from this School, so trained in all the branches of scholarship, as to enable many of them to reflect honor upon themselves, and the Institution at which they received their education.

The large experience and earnestness of the Principals in the cause of education, will contribute much to the successful training of youth entrusted to their care. n29-2t

LIGHTNING—has been much more destructive this summer than for several seasons passed. Not a county within our knowleige but has experienced, to a greater or less degree, the ravages of this destructive fluid. Barns, houses, live stock and human beings have been destroyed by its agency to a greater extent than ever before recorded. Whether this portends the destruction of all things or is preparing a more healthy element, is beyond our comprehension.

ORDINATITION AND INSTALLATION.—The committee appointed by West Susquehanna Classis, to ordain and install Rev. D. M. Wolf, as pastor of the Bellefonte charge of the Reformed Church will attend to this duty on next Sunday at 10½ A. M. There will also be divine service on Saturday evening previous at 7½ o'clock and on Sunday evening at the same time. The committee consists of Revs. Joseph Millet, Klein, and Evans.

THANKS.—Our thanks are due Mr. Peter Shultz residing in Harris township, for a fine lot of Early Rose potatoes. They were perfectly ripe, and we can safely say that we have never eaten finer flavored potatoes.

Mr. Shultz is one of Harris townships best farmers, and has gained quite a reputation as a cultivator of the potato. We hope he may live to raise many more crops of this excellent esculent.

CAMP MEETING.—There will be a camp meeting, on the half moon circuit, held in the Grove near Pine Grove, on the ground of Henry Meek, commencing on Thursday, the 25th day of Aug. continuing until Friday, the 2nd of September. Preachers and members of other charges, and the public generally are cordially invited to attend.

ELISHA BUTLER,
Preacher in Charge.

DISTINGUISHED ARRIVAL.—On Wednesday, the 27th ult., H. L. Dieffenbach, for a long time editor and proprietor of the Clinton Democrat, paid this place a visit on his way to the Agricultural College. Mr. D. is one of the "old school" gentlemen—Democratic through and through and as tenacious of the extreme ideas adopted by the Democratic party as a Turk is of his religion.

A SERENADE.—On last Saturday as we sat in our sanctum, we heard sounds of sweet music on our streets. It is true that "Music hath charms to sooth the savage breast" so we ran to the door to see the cause of all the excitement. The Pine Grove Cornet Band had entered our town in a beautiful wagon, and was driving around our principal streets playing some tunes which were delightful. After playing around our town, they held up in front of the Brockerhoff House, got out, went in, and prepared for the magnificent dinner, of which they there partook. It was a good dinner, just such a one as only Houseal & Krom can get up, without previous notice.

The Band is composed of the following members. W. E. Burchfield, (leader), John A. Weaver, Wills Shiffler, J. I. Musser, Wm. Ward, J. Ward, D. H. Weaver, D. M. Weaver, John G. Hess, Jno. C. Kreps, Thomas Kreps, George Weaver, Edward Ward, Jacob Musser and John L. Musser. They are all residents of Pine Grove and Furguson tp. and although the Band has not been organized one year, they play well, and in a very short time this band will be able to vie with any band in the State. Their wagon and instruments, at a rough guess, must have cost them from $800 to $900. Such enterprise deserves success, and speaks volumes in favor of the intelligence and liberality of the people of Pine Grove and vicinity.

In the evening, when ready to leave town, they serenaded the REPUBLICAN office, in good style, by playing several beautiful airs. From our office they went to the Watchman office where they played but one tune, some one remarking, that it was time to leave, as the smell of green cucumbers, which always betoken the presence of a copperhead, was growing quite too strong.

We hope the band will come often, and to the leaders of the two parties we say, secure the services of this band for the campaign.

REMARKABLE.—"Now we'd like to know what the editor of the REPUBLICAN has against Prof. Hastings."—Watchman.

The editor of this paper, as is well known entertains none but the kindest of feelings towards Prof. Hastings, and have always labored for his advancement, he being a first class Republican, whom the Watchman on a former occasion villianously denounced. Prof. Hastings informed many of his friends some time since, so we were told, that it would be impossible for him to take charge of our public schools during the next term. Consequently, as we supposed the vacancy caused by his decision would have to be filled, and every other person except Meek, wants a competent person selected for the position.

Now, we would like to know what Prof. Hasting's has done, to be, beslimed with praise from such an ungodly-church-defying-union-hating-rebel-traitor as Meek is well known to be? We more than surmise that Meek takes that method to injure the standing of the Prof. in the estimation of his party friends, but we predict that he will fail in doing so.

COMMENDATORY.—At a meeting of the Board of School Directors, of the Borough of Bellefonte, held on Friday eve., the 29th ult., the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the School Board of the Borough of Bellefonte, recognize in Prof. D. H. Hastings an efficient and accomplished teacher; an energetic and fearless principal and an accomplished gentleman and scholar.

Resolved, That in the opinion of the Board our schools have been conducted with marked ability and success, and their present efficiency is a subject of just pride and congratulation.

Resolved, That we hereby tender to Prof. D. H. Hastings and his efficient corps of Teachers the thanks of the Board and community, for the energetic and faithful manner in which they have discharged their several duties, and that these resolutions be entered on record upon the minutes of the Board.

NEWS FROM OTHER COUNTIES.

HUNTINGDON COUNTY.—The world might be traversed over, says the Globe, and it is doubtful if another trio exists that does the same as the one of which we write: In this town are three old ladies, aged respectively 77, 75 and 59, (combined ages 211 years), who cook for a family of twelve, and control all the household affairs in a satisfactory manner. The youngest does the chief part of the cooking, assisted by the next, while the oldest has charge of the chamber work. "The "chief cook" says she can beat the generality of "girls" nowsdays in putting through work.—The combined weight of the trio would range in the neighborhood of 400 lbs., and over. One is married, and the other two are widows.

.....The Freedom Iron and Steel Company's property, located in Huntingdon and Mifflin counties, is advertised in the daily papers to be sold at the Philadelphia Exchenge, on Thursday, September 27th next.

.....The Juniata county Methodists will hold a camp meeting near Waterloo, commencing on the 2nd of September.

BLAIR COUNTY.—John C. Everhard, of Blair county, has been nominated for the Senate by the Democracy of that county.

.....The Altoona Sun says: "Brainerd, having "busted up" the Bellefonte National and Plain Words, and having put the Tyrone Herald on its last legs, now threatens to come to Altoona and start a Democratic paper. Good Lord deliver us!"

....D. T. Caldwell, Banker, of Tyrone, offers himself as a candidate for the State Senate, subject to the decision of the Republican county convention.

UNION COUNTY.—A very destructive storm visited Buffalo township on Wednesday, the 20th inst., prostrating trees and fences, and doing considerable damage to corn and oats crops. The rainfall is said to have been the heaviest ever known to have occurred in that lo-

....A tree in the yard of Mr. Wm. Hassenplug, of this place, was struck by lightning during the storm of Wednesday of last week. The family of Mr. Chas. Zellers, residing in close proximity, was prostrated by the shock, and narrowly escaped, but no further damage was done.—Mifflinburg Telegraph.

BEDFORD COUNTY.—The Gazette says: There are at present about seven hundred visitors at Bedford and the Springs.

....Joe Rushbarger, the big man who runs Ben Garretson's team from Bedford to Mt. Dallas, was the recipient of a handsome present the other day. Joe was unloading a "solid" load in front of the Bedford House, and after swearing until his throat was not a little parched, he stepped over to Joshua's to get a drink of the "ice-cold" always on the counter, when a stranger accosted him, with "I think I am a relative of yours." Whereupon he told Joe that his name was John Rushbarger, and a cousin, and that he lived in New York. He then asked Joe what he was doing; was told; asked him whether he was hard up, to which Joe assented with an oath, and the cousin walked to the counter, pulled out a blank and filled up a note for $2,000, payable thirty days after date, to Joe's order. He then told Joe he was worth $1,500,000, and he gave him that mere trifle as a present. Joe has more vim in his swearing since that little episode.

.....At a celebration near Hollar's Spring, some days ago, Miss Nettie Herring and Miss Lizzie Dunkle fell off a swing (which was put up for the occasion) and were very seriously injured.

....On Saturday last, our friend W. A. B. Clark, Esq., of Schellsburg, and several friends from the "Foot of the Ridge," went to Clear Shade, in Somerset county, trout-fishing. They returned home with three hundred speckled beauties. Pretty good.

JUNIATA COUNTY.—We learn from the Sentinel, that on last Wednesday morning Mr. James Buck, of Patterson, fireman on a freight engine, was severely scalded by the bursting of a steam pipe on his engine. The accident occurred a short distance this side of Altoona.

....One night last week, while one of Mr. Emanual Moyer's horses was at pasture, it was bitten by a snake in the left front pastern. Mr. Moyer went to the woods, dug up some rattle-snake root and fried it in lard, which he applied to the bitten place. The horse is doing well.

.....On Wednesday afternoon of last week, during the thunder-storm which passed over this vicinity, the mill belonging to Mr. Enos Bergy, in Permanagh township, known as the Jericho Mill, was struck by lightning. The building was not much injured, the most being the breaking of a rafter and joist and the tearing of the roof. There were no lighning rods attached to the building.

"There was a frog who lived in a spring,
He caught such a cold that he could not sing."

Poor, unfortunate Batrachian: In what a sad plight he must have been.—And yet his misfortune was one that often befalls singers. Many a once tuneful voice among those who belong to the "gen us homo" is utterly spoiled by the "cold in the head," or on the lungs, or both combined. For the above mentioned "croaker" we are not aware that any remedy was ever devised; but we rejoice to know that all human singers may keep their heads clear and their throats in tune by a timely use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and Dr. Pierce's Alt. Ext. or Golden Medical Discovery, both of which are sold by druggists.

BARGAINS.—Isaac Haupt Esq., having finished his new house, now occupies the front room, first floor, with his stove tin and sheet iron store. Isaac is full of the true grit, and is now offering the ware, and fruit cans 20 per cent lower than they can be purchased at any other establishment in town or county.

THE REPUBLICAN.

Wednesday Morning, Aug. 3, 1870.

BARGAINS! BARGAINS!!

The Bellefonte REPUBLICAN and the "American Agriculturist."

We are now prepared to offer the people of Centre county, a Great Bargain for the coming year. It is this: To every subscriber who will send us $3.00 in advance, we will send the BELLEFONTE "REPUBLICAN," and the 'AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST,' for one year. Of the REPUBLICAN we need not speak at present.

The American Agriculturist is a work that no farmer nor housekeeper should be without. As a farm-journal we think it has no superior in the world—certainly none in the United States. It is issued monthly, and the subscription price is $1.50 per annum. By ciubing with the REPUBLICAN you save fifty cents, and secure more good reading matter than you can obtain in any other way for the same money.

We hope the reading public will avail themselves of this very liberal offer.

For the REPUBLICAN.

HUCKLEBERRIES.

MESSRS EDITORS:—At this season of the year, when Huckleberries appear in the market it may not be uninteresting to the readers of the REPUBLICAN to learn something of their growth, and the mode of gathering them.

There are four kinds of fruit obtained from our mountains, wooded hills, or uncultivated swamps which are denominated Huckleberries.

The earliest fruit is derived from the Dwarf Blue berry, (Vaccinium Pennsylvanicum of the Botanists.) This little undershrub may be readily distinguished by its small, narrow and shining leaves and low stature, being rarely more than a foot high, and usually half that height. There appears to be two varieties, clearly marked by their fruit. The berries of the one are black, almost destitute of bloom, rather firm and somewhat tart, depending from the end of the branches in very close clusters of three or more together. The berries of the other, are pale blue thickly covered with bloom, softer, sweeter, earlier, and rather more scattered on the branches. Both kinds are fragrant, they grow upon dry flats of mountains, and are seldom found far from the top. They are sometimes so abundant in fruit that the slender branches lie flat upon the ground, and the berries give it a bluish or blackish tinge; while in other places or seasons, (as last year,) whole acres of bushes can be traversed without meeting a single berry.

Their season is now about over, and they have given place to another species, the low blue berry, (Vaccinium vacillans,) which may be known by its pale appearance, its broader leaves, its greater height (from one to two feet) and dense bare clusters of ripe and unripe berries, at the end of the branches. The berries are much like the second variety of the kind previously mentioned, but are much more difficult to gather on account of the irregular ripening of the fruit, ripe and unripe coming off together unless cairefully handled. This species, though less crowded in patches, has a wider range of productive growth than the first being found everywhere among mountains rocks, and oftentimes in neglected fields and along fences.

A third species, found associated with both the preceding, especially the second, is the Black Huckleberry, (Gaylussacia resinosa.). It is quite different in appearance from the others. The brown wiry stems and branches, the meagre foliage, and the clammy leaves covered with resinous dots, fully point out the distinction. Its fruit too much resembles a cherry rather than a berry, but has ten long seeds instead of one. The berries are black, with but little bloom, and quite firm, with a rough external coat. This species is particularly found on the first slope of the mountain, before the rocks are reached, and on the flats.—It is from two to three feet high.

The swamp Huckleberry, (Vaccinium corymbosum.) is the fourth species. Its altitude and locality at once distinguish it. In the Bear Meadows, where it flourishes, it attains the surprising height of ten or fifteen feet, so that men have actually ascended the bushes, and ridden under the branches on horseback to pick the berries. The berries are similar to those of the first species but are larger.

The mode of picking is as various as the pickers. That practised by good pickers is essentially the following.—One hand is placed beneath the berries and the berries detached and skillfully rolled into the palm by the thumb while the other hand is engaged in holding the branch. Sometimes both hands are used in picking. The quantity which can be gathered in a certain time is exceedingly various.—Two men of our village are said to have gathered respectively twelve and fourteen quarts of berries (of the first kind) in an hour and a half, but then the berries were abundant and they were good pickers. Three or four quarts an hour may be considered good picking. In conclusion, some cautions to be observed by those who go berrying are here given.—First don't imagine before you go that every bush, stump, and stone, is covered with berries, for if you do, you will surely by disappointed. Secondly don't think your vessel will be filled by putting it merely under the bushes. If you want berries you must pick them. Thirdly don't suppose that you can certainly find a better place than the moderately full one you are picking in by tramping all over the mountain. If you do you may be tired when you reach your horse, but not by the weight of berries you carried. Lastly, don't mistake your own mouth for the mouth of your basket.

A WONDERFUL PLANT.—A specimen of the wonderful plant, "the flower of the Holy Ghost," has been successfully raised in Norwich, Conn. The flower is a creamy white cup, nearly as large as half an egg, and extremely beautiful, and its wonder as a natural floral growth is the fact that in this flower is a little pure white dove, with pink bill and eyes, and its head turned as if looking over its back. Its wings, feet, bill, etc., are absolutely perfect as those of the living dove, whose counterpart the wonderful mimic bird is.

For the REPUBLICAN.

OAK HALL, PA. July 29, 1870.

COL. W. W. BROWN:—The wheat I left at the REPUBLICAN office consisted of seven different varieties. First the Jennings; 2nd. the White Amber; 3d. what is called the Centre county wheat: 4th. Diehl's Select; 5th. the Medeteranian with white chaff and grain; 6th. the Old Medeteranian; 7th. the French wheat. This last variety was badly damaged by the midge. It will not do in our county. The only reliable varieties in my opinion are the Jennings and the White Mediteranian.

I saw the different kinds at the model farm on the plots, before the wheat was cut, and can safely say that the Jennings is the best. I purchased 27 bushels, last year, in Mercer County. I sowed the greater part of it. It has been tried on different farms. Mr. Reuben Valentine sowed five bushels of it and, it proved to be his best wheat. I have discovered that the fly was not near so bad in it as in the other varieties. I also find that the fly has not injured the White Mediterianian, Yours &c.

C. DALE.

WESTERN ETIQUETTE.—The Yankee traveler who saw the live hoosier has written to his mother, giving his experience as follows:

Western people are death on etiquette. You can't tell a man here he lies, without fighting.

A few days ago a man was telling a pretty large story in my hearing.

"Stranger, that's a whooper," says I.

"Lay there, stranger," says he.

And in less than no time I found myself sprawling in the ditch.

At another time, says I to a man I never see afore, as a woman passed:

"That isn't a specimen of your western women, is it?"

"You're afeard," says he, "of the fever and ager, stranger, ain't yer?"

"Very much," says I.

"Well," that was my wife, and if you don't apologize in two minutes, by the honor of a gentleman, I swear to you, that these two pistols shall cure you of the disorder entirely.

So I politely apologized.

I admire the western country very much, but darn me if I can stand so much etiquette; it always takes me unawares.

HOW TO GET BIG CROPS.—as a rule farmers are much more ambitions to get the big prices than crops. There are few farms whose average production could not be doubled in a very short time by more capital and labor. It is safer to use capital in farming than in almost ony other business. the credit of the plow is quite as good as that of the loom and anvil, and the capital will come, if it is called for. Use more manure, and get thirty bushels of wheat where you now get fifteen, and eighty bushels of corn where you now get forty. The quantity of grain per acre is mainly a question of manure and tillage. A big compost head is a full grain bin. With high manuring, the soil needs deeper stirring and gradual bringing up of the subsoil to the surface. With the present horse harrows and cultivator, nearly all the cultivation can be done by horse-power, at a great saving of expense and increase of the crops.

IRON AROUND PEACH TREES.—At a recent meeting of the American Institute Farmers' Club, Mr. Wagner, who lives on Long Island, about fifty miles east of New York, exhibited some pruning from his orchard to illustrate the effect of putting iron around trees. He took an old place with twenty trees in the orchard, full of dead limbs. with yellow leaves, and the crotches oozing thick gum. He gave the earth a good top-dressing of iron, breaking up old plows and stoves and scattering the fragments. The effect has been marvelous. The trees have renewed their youth, and now look strong and thrifty. The bark is tight, and the leaves are green, and the borer has disappeared. He thinks the slag of iron furnaces, ground up and spread on orchards, would prove a very valuable fertilizer for fruit trees of all kinds.

POSSIBLY, it may be the mission of the Colored Race to revive Epic Poetry; though we hope not, for "Poems" in twelve or twenty-four books we do not find it so pleasant to grapple with as it used to be in the days of our grandfathers. Nevertheless, here is a negro in Kentucky who has written a poem of 2,000 verses, founded upon the Rebellion, and called "Columbiana; or, The North Star." But the production has this epic peculiarty that the author goes about, singing parts of it "to procure money wherewith to publish it complete." We assure the Bard of African desent that his course is strictly classical. The finest heroic poem ever written was published in that way. Homer, if the tradition is to be trusted, carried round his hat, and was thankful for every obole droped into it. Verily, this is a world in which there is nothing old or new.

WE cannot vouch for the truth of the report that the census marshals are required to ask of every family—"Do you take the REPUBLICAN?" As it is a censible question, it is not likely to in-cens anybody, and would be as appropriate as some others in the cens-us. The marshals will probably advise the people that they cannot better display good sense than in dis-pence-ing the few cents required to secure the publication.

"I feel," moaned a dying cobbler, "that I wax weaker every day, and that I am fast approaching my end only a few more stitches and awl will be over. In Heaven there is rest for the sole, earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heel." Having said awl he wished, he calmly breathed his last.

A Bright-eyed four year-old got his little prayer mixed up the other night. Imagine the astonishment of his mother to hear her darling commence thus:

Now I lay me down to sleep,
Shoo fly don't bodder me.

A Massachusetts man gives this brief account of how he supposed himself to have been married:

"The children of Israel wanted bread,
And the Lord sent them to Manna;
Captain George A. Noble wanted a wife,
And the devil sent him to Hannah."

THE GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

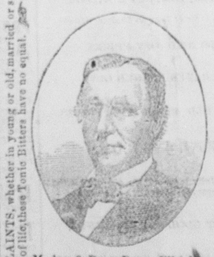
DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS.

MORE THAN 500,000 PERSONS Bear testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE

FANCY DRINK,



Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey Proof Spirits, and Refuse Liquors, doctored spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true medicine made from the native Roots and Herbs of California free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the Great Blood Purifier and Life Giving Principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator, of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter, and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell.

$100 will be given for an incurable case provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poisons or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, and Gout, Dyspepsia, or Indigestion Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins: cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE, and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed.

In Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, these Bitters have no equal. For full directions read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French, and Spanish.

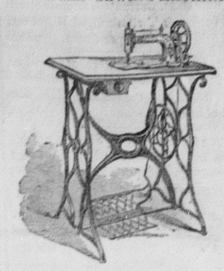
SEWING MACHINE.

THE SINGER SEWING MACHINE.



Among sewing machines, those made by the Singer Manufacturing Company ranks with the highest. Their manufacturing machines have long been known as the best for manufacturing purposes. But within the past few years, they have given special attention to the prodnction of a

destined to win much favor in the

HOUSEHOLD.

The machine which they now offer is quite, light running, simple, fast, noiseless. Its accessories for

are simple and easily understood. Its delicate though enduring and tireless muscles of iron and steel, do all the work noiselessly, better, and few will deny, "Faster than hand can do it." They urge these wishing a machine, to examine all the other manufacturers before buying, as it will, for itself, overcome all the objections to the other machines that can be brought against it. Machines on hand for sale and exhibition, together with a full and complete assortment of

SILK, TWIST, LINEN OR COTTON THREAD,

and other accessories for the machines, by

W. W. MONTGOMERY, Agent,
